THE CEYLON MISSION

OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Mission was first established in this Island in the year 1818. It has four Stations; viz., COTTA, KANDY, NELLORE, and BADDAGAMA. Nine Missionaries in Holy Orders, ten Catechists, and ninety-seven others, being probationary Catechists, Native Schoolmasters &c.; making in all one hundred and sixteen Labourers.

There are forty stated Congregations with an average attendance of two thousand four hundred and eighteen. The number of regular Communicants is one hundred and thirty three. It has fifty eight Schools, containing two thousand four hundred and sixty two children [2036 boys, and 426 girls] besides seventy one Seminarists, and Institution Youths, all of whom, except two, are boarded, clothed, and educated at the expense of the Society.

The whole of the Holy Scriptures, and the Book of Common Prayer, have been translated into the familiar Singhalese, and printed at the Cotta Press; besides many Elementary School Books, and a large number of Religious Tracts which have been circulated, and readily received by the Natives.

The British and Foreign Bible Society have recently authorized a new Edition of 2000 Copies of the Cotta Version of the Scriptures to be printed at the Cotta Press, and the work is now in progress.

The prospects of the Mission are encouraging in all its branches of labour. The Congregations, though in some places small, are very attentive. The School Children and Seminarists are making creditable progress in the acquirement of both religious and general knowledge; and many new Schools might be established, at the request of the Natives, if the Mission had the means of supporting them.

The affairs of the Mission are conducted by a Committee consisting of all the Church Missionaries in the Island, who meet yearly at Cotta on the business of the Mission.
